

S. ANDREW McCULLEY

Project Manager

Professional Experience

Becker & Frondorf, Philadelphia, PA
2003 – Present

Andy is a forty-five year veteran of the construction industry and has worked on almost all sides of the business. He uses this experience to achieve the greatest value for each of his clients. Project management/scheduling assignments include:

Boeing Philadelphia Focused Facility, Ridley Park & South Carolina Locations
Rittenhouse Hotel Spa, Philadelphia, PA
Agnes Irwin School, Rosemont, PA
National Museum of American Jewish History, Philadelphia, PA
Tredyffrin Public Library, Philadelphia, PA
The Pier at Caesars, Atlantic City, NJ
The Franklin Institute (1996-2006 Capital Campaign), Philadelphia, PA
Meadowood Life Care Community, Worcester, PA

DOMUS, Inc., Philadelphia, PA
Project Manager for General Contractor
1998 – 2003

MPA, Inc., Boston, MA
Project Manager for REIT
1997 – 1998

C. Arena & Company, Wallingford, PA
Construction Manager/Owner's Representative
1988 – 1991, 1994 – 1997

American Application Associates, Middletown, NY
Project Manager for Drywall Subcontractor
1992 – 1994

Construction Project Manager for various firms including HMS Interiors, Inc., Calvanese Corporation, Historic Landmarks for Living, and Shaffer-Gordon Associates.
1970 – 1988

Education

Spring Garden College
Associate Degree in Building Construction, 1970

Training Seminars: Construction Management, Critical Path Method of Scheduling, Estimating and Scheduling Software.